

 SUNDAY 6TH AUGUST

Emily Andrews &
Francisco Correa Entertain

Emily Andrews (flute, voice) and Francisco Correa (guitar) met in France in 2011 at a Summer Festival where they were both playing. Their musical relationship developed alongside their personal one (they married in 2013), and as a duo they have performed in England, Colombia and France.

As well as performing Western classical instrumental music together, they explore the Latin American music of Francisco's heritage and many songs from both sides of the Atlantic. They have been working on a recent collection of lullabies (canciones de cuna) which they trial on their baby son - he is their most honest critic!
